

The South Sea Island Trade.

Editor P. C. A.—Sir: But few of your readers know the extent of the business now carried on in the South Sea Islands, or I venture to say, that might be carried on with a little assistance out of the port of Honolulu. If the Hawaiian Government would offer a reasonable bounty for every gallon of coconut oil shipped out of the country there might be parties willing to put up a machine for pressing the copra.

The refuse from an oil mill is used in Europe as fodder, and is well known as oil cake. It is used quite extensively in this country, and would find a ready market at home, as well as a good portion of the oil. An assistance of $2,500 from the Government might induce some company to start the enterprise. Yours, X. Y. Z.

St. Andrew's Cathedral.

The services at this church to-morrow, conducted by the Bishop of Honolulu, will be: Holy Communion, 6:30 a. m. Morning prayer, with sermon, at 9:30 a. m. Evensong, with catechetical address by the Bishop of Honolulu, at 6 p. m. All seats are unappropriated.

Second Congregation, Rev. Geo. Wallace, pastor elect: Morning prayer, with sermon, 11:15 a. m.; evening prayer, with sermon, 7:30 p. m. Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. in the Punahou Preparatory School building. Seats free at all services.

The Garland Assault Case.

The two cases for an assault and battery on M. Garland by Joseph Ryan and George Patterson, were both tried on the same evidence yesterday before Police Justice Bickerton. The testimony was long and uninteresting in the main, and the cases occupied the most of the day. At the conclusion of the evidence Justice Bickerton remanded the defendants until the 30th instant for judgment.

At the Lyceum.

The services to-morrow will be as follows: Sunday school at 9:45 o'clock. Lesson: "Jesus comforting His Disciples"—John 14:1-14. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., with preaching by E. C. Ogden, the pastor. The Fort-street congregation will join in the evening service at the above place. A cordial invitation to these services is extended to old and young, and all will be made welcome.

Reception at Kauai.

Her Excellency Lanihau, Governor of Kauai, was entertained by the residents of Waimea, Kauai, last Saturday. A luau was given and a very enjoyable time was had. The following day Her Excellency attended the church, when she made an address. The church was filled with people.

Domestic Produce Receipts.

The following are the receipts of domestic products for the week ending Friday, August 27th: Sugar, 12,625 bags; paddy, 3,612 bags; rice 843 bags; wool, 70 bales; molasses, 198 barrels; salt, 100 bags; and 371 hides.

Fort-street Church.

There will be service at Fort-street Church Sunday morning 11 a. m., conducted by Rev. C. M. Hyde, D. D. In the evening the congregation will unite with the Bethel Church at the Lyceum.

Val Blatz Milwaukee lager beer holds the first premium over all competitors at the New Orleans Exposition. Bottled expressly for this climate.
